

Beef Starter Premier-D

Product Profile

Get weaned and receiving calves up on feed faster

Key Benefits

- Helps combat stress
- Enhances feed intake
- Improves post-weaning weight gain
- Increases immune response during first 30 days post arrival
- Restores rumen function
- Maintains health, growth and reproductive performance
- Strengthens immune system function

Product Description

- Designed to minimize calves stress experience at weaning and receiving
- Contains high-quality, biologically-available minerals and vitamins
- Features a high level of Vitamins, in particular Vitamin E, which aids in maintaining health, growth and reproductive performance

Packaging & Form

- 50 pound bag
- Available in non-medicated and medicated forms

Mixing Directions

- Each pound of Beef Starter Premier-D contains 267.9 mg of Decoquinatate (133.95 mg/0.50 pounds). This product must be mixed thoroughly with grain and/or roughage before feeding. Mix a Type C feed according to the table below.

#550121	# Feed/Ton	Deccox (g/ton)	Deccox (mg/lb)
339.3 lb	1660.7 lb	90.9	45.45

Feeding Directions

- Feed the resulting Type C feed (90.9 g/ton Decoquinatate) at a rate of 0.5 pounds per 100 pounds of bodyweight to provide 22.7 mg per 100 pounds of bodyweight to cattle (including ruminating and non-ruminating calves and veal calves) up to 600 pounds.

Product Code:

550121 Beef Starter Premix 50 pound bag contains Deccox®

Deccox® is a registered trademark of Zoetis