

COMMODITY NUTRIENT PROFILE

CORN

DESCRIPTION

Corn must consist of at least 95% sound corn and must not contain more than 3% broken corn and foreign material and a maximum 5% damaged kernels of which not more than 0.2% are heat damaged kernels. In this definition, foreign material must be all matter other than corn, and other grains, which are not separated from the corn in the proper determination of dockage.

PHYSICAL CHARACTERISTICS

Color – Typical bright natural color

Odor – Clean, characteristic odor, not musty

Texture – Absence of dirt, mold, sand, gravel and other foreign material

Density – 45 lbs/cu/t

Contact a Furst-McNess Merchandiser for a typical analysis.

FURST-MCNESS COMPANY

YOUR TRUSTED SUPPLIER OF WET AND DRY CO-PRODUCTS

Look to McNess for dependable livestock feeding solutions through quality products, services and technical support.

Corporate Headquarters: 1252 BELL VALLEY ROAD, SUITE 220, ROCKFORD, IL 61108

815.235.6151 EXT 241 ♦ www.mcness.com/commodities